

August 11, 2011

Dear Parents:

The 2011-2012 Wesleyan School Family Handbook is now available to read and review online at the school's website, www.wesleyanschool.org. It contains vital information regarding the school's background, mission and philosophy, honor system, and policies and procedures. We ask that you read and discuss these guidelines and appropriate sections with each Wesleyan student in your home, and remember to check the website for reference when questions about the school arise.

After reviewing this book with your student, please sign this form on the appropriate line, and also ask your child to do the same. Please return the form to your middle school student's homeroom teacher no later than Tuesday, August 23, 2011.

We appreciate your cooperation and support.

Sincerely,

Jason Scheer

Dean of Students
